ESCAPE

From long-haul retreats and weekend breaks, to chic city stopovers and tropical hideaways, these are some of the world's top haunts

TOUCH OF CHANEL

Karl Lagerfeld, the creative director of Chanel, has collaborated with the award-winning Hotel Métropole Monte-Carlo to create a mural for its new pool. Lagerfeld took inspiration from Ulysses' Odyssey when creating the 18-glass-panel mural that features models posed in togas designed by Lagerfeld himself. The models' photos were layered over 19th-century imagery of the Greek coastline and were then mounted over illuminating LED lighting.

FASHION HOUSE

Hotel Missoni is the only five-star hotel on the historic Royal Mile in the heart of Edinburgh. The hotel is a revolutionary collaboration between a fashion house and a venue, and from the sheets to the bathrobes, everything is in bright and beautiful Missoni designs. During your stay, treat yourself to a trip downstairs to dine in the award-winning Italian restaurant, Cucina, or unwind in the on-site spa with soothing treatments that come with the option of a decadent afternoon tea. The Hotel Missoni offers both modern amenities and a one-off luxury experience all wrapped up in one stylish bow.

ROAD TRIP

Classic Travelling is a company that organises small and escorted group and independent driving tours for owners of classic cars. Whether you want a quick weekend away or a long break that crosses countries, Classic Travelling offers a range of carefully-crafted tours with tour books, accommodation and sublime routes. The tour may be organised but your schedule is not. Drivers are invited to go off-piste and at their own speed, so that they may fully lose themselves in days spent driving iconic cars and nights passed in charming hotels with like-minded peers.
